JAPANESE WHISKYS

Japanese whisky has a long and storied history.

While production began around 1870 the first commercially produced whisky appeared in 1924 with the opening of the Yamazaki distillery.

Each whisky house produces unique expressions with a small number of distilleries defining a wide range of whisky styles. Molded after the traditions of Scotch, Japanese whisky is double distilled before being aged in wood casks.

Flavors tend to be drier and smokier than the sweeter American bourbons and ryes.
